The Barbara McInnis House provides cost-effective, short-term medical and recuperative services to homeless men and women who do not meet the criteria of other healthcare facilities but are far too sick to tolerate the stress of life in shelters or on the street.

We serve as a safety net for individuals who need assertive, short-term management of their medical needs and services.

Admission Criteria

- Have acute medical need
- Be medically & mentally stable to be managed within our program
- Need short-term care
- Be independent in Activities of Daily Living (ADL)
- Be enrolled in methadone program in the city of Boston (if patient is actively taking methadone)

Based on referrals from hospitals, shelters, clinics, and other various healthcare service providers. Patients cannot self-refer themselves.
